Notification No. 23351, dated 11*th May* 1933

Ordinance 74 (pages 74-75 of Vol. I of Calendar for 1930-31) has been amended as under.

Substitute the following for the original :—

Ordinance 74:

(i) The Intermediate Examination in Arts and the Intermediate Examination in Science shall be held in two parts: Part I comprising English and the Second Language; Part II comprising the optional subjects selected.

(ii) Candidates for the Intermediate Examination shall present themselves for examination in both the parts except as provided hereinafter.

(iii) No candidate shall be declared to have passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts or the Intermediate Examination in Science unless he obtains not less then 40 per cent of the total number of marks in English, 35 per cent in the second language and 35 per cent in the whole group of optional subjects, and also not less then 30 per cent in each of the subjects of the optional group, and in the case of the Intermediate Examination in Science not less than 35 per cent in Elementary Mathematics.

(iv) Such of the candidates, failing to secure the above minima, as secure not less than 45 per cent of the total maximum marks in either part, obtaining the requisite minimum in each division of that part, will be permitted to appear only for the other part at a subsequent examination held within two years of passing in the former part.

(v) A candidate who thus presents himself for examination in only one part shall be declared to have passed in that part also if he obtains not less than 45 per cent of the total maximum marks in that part, provided that in the case of part II not less than 35 per cent is obtained in each division of the part.

(vi) Candidates who present themselves for examination in part I only or in part II only and are declared to have passed shall not be classed.

TRANSITIONAL RULES.

(1) In the case of I. Sc. (leading to Medicine), Part I shall comprise English only.

(2) No candidate shall be declared to have passed the Intermediate Examination in Science (leading to Medicine) unless he obtains not less than 40 per cent in English, 35 per cent in Mathematics and 35 per cent in the written examinations in physics, Chemistry, Zoology and Botany, 35 per cent in the practical viva voce examinations put together in each of these subjects and 50 per cent of the aggregate number of marks in these last four subjects.

(3) No candidate shall be declared to have passed the Intermediate Examination in Science (leading to Engineering) unless he obtains not less than 40 per cent of the total number of marks in English, 35 per cent in the second language, 35 per cent in each of the optional subjects, and 50 per cent of the aggregate in the Science subjects including Mathematics.

Provided that candidates for the Intermediate Examination in Science (leading to Engineering) or for the Intermediate Examination in Science (leading to Medicine) who fail to obtain the minima prescribed for the respective examinations but obtain not less than 40 per cent in English, 35 per cent in Mathematics, 35 per cent in the second language (in the case of Engineering) 30 per cent in each of the other subjects and 35 per cent of the aggregate marks in these last, shall be declared eligible for admission to the B. Sc. course in such group of subjects as the University Council may decide.

Clauses (iv) and (v) of the Ordinance above will also be appliable in the case of I. Sc. (Engineering) and I. Sc. (Medicine) candidates subject to the condition that for a pass in Part II only a minimum of 50 per cent should be secured in the aggregate in the Science subjects in the case of I. Sc. (Medicine) and in the Science subjects including Mathematics in the case of I. Sc. (Engineering).
